Dear Parent and Student

As we arrive at the end of the academic year, you like I probably feel that it is a strange time. The usual celebrations are absent, as are the goodbyes and best wishes over the summer holiday. I sincerely hope that you all have as restful a break as you are able and very much look forward to welcoming all the students back in September, as we start the process of moving towards to a sense of normality.

Congratulations go to:

- The following Lower school pupil who has recently attained her Platinum Merit Award:
